Purpose

The purpose of this compliance statement is to provide a public statement by us regarding our intention to comply with decisions made using the Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure.

What is the Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure?

The Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure is a procedure which has been developed by ICANN to handle complaints; where the complainant may assert that it is a trademark holder for whom one or more of its marks have been infringed, and thereby the complainant has been harmed by the manner of operation or use of the TLD.

The Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure details the basis on which a complaint can be made and the processes involved. Details about the Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure are on the ICANN website at the following link <http://newgtlds.icann.org/en/program-status/pddrp>.

Our role in the Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure

Our role in the Trademark Post-Delegation Dispute Resolution Procedure is to respond to a complaint as described in the procedure, and to implement the recommendations of the provider appointed to hear claims made as a result of the Registry Restrictions Dispute Resolution Procedure.
