About this document

This document describes our compliance with the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy.

Document Identifier: Compliance Statement - Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy - 1.0

Publication Date: 7 July 2014

Status: Current

Purpose

The purpose of this compliance statement is to provide a public statement by us regarding our intention to comply with decisions made using the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy.

What is the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy?

The Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (often referred to as 'UDRP') is policy that all ICANN accredited Registrars must follow, and is included in registration agreements for all ICANN accredited Registrars.

Under the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy, most types of trademark-based domain-name disputes must be resolved by agreement, court action, or arbitration before a Registrar deletes, or transfers a domain name.

Details about the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy can be found on the ICANN web site at the following link <http://www.icann.org/en/resources/registrars/consensus-policies>.

Our role in the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy

Our role in the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy is to facilitate a Registrars' application of the policy. We do not make any determinations about a domain name or its use in relation to the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy.
